“It’s Not About Competition, It’s About Opportunity!”

In the midst of our second decade providing once in a lifetime dance experiences and unique and exciting performance opportunities, Educational Performance Tours continues to be an innovator and leader in the educational student performing arts community. Our unique philosophy, “it’s not just about competition, but also opportunity” sets us apart from the standard “dance competition and convention” experience and has allowed us to inspire and educate young dancers, taking them to new heights in their educational performance lives.

2012 LEGACY

Legacy is your chance to offer your dancers the opportunity to do more than just reach for the stars. It actually allows them to talk, meet, & dance with them in the performing arts capital of the world – New York City! Legacy is an extraordinary New York City dance experience featuring some of New York’s most accomplished dancers and choreographers.

“Working with Educational Performance Tours provides me the opportunity to share my art with aspiring young students from around the country. It gives me the chance to inspire future generations to go after their dreams and to never give up. It is an invaluable experience for the students and the smiles on their face after each class makes it equally as rewarding for myself.”

Alana Niehoff, New York City Ballet

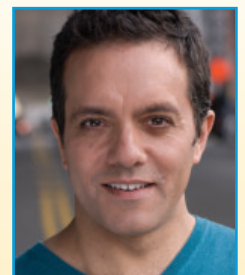

“Working with Educational Performance Tours is always a highlight of my day. Sharing the Broadway Experience in an uplifting and positive way during each workshop, reconfirms the level of commitment we all share in educating future generations. The professional work, focus, and smiles make it a worthwhile experience for everyone involved.”

Rommy Sandhu, Mary Poppins

“The best thing about performing arts, is the ability to share it with others. Teaching at Educational Performance Tour gave me the opportunity to do so. It was a very rewarding experience to inspire and be inspired.”

Troy Powell, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre
